

A Washington Global Health Alliance Discovery Series event

BIRTH DEFECTS IN IRAQ: THE CONSEQUENCES OF WAR

Mozhgan Savabieasfahani
Environmental Toxicologist
University of Michigan

Dr. Muhsin Al-Sabbak
Obstetrician
Basrah Maternity Hospital, Iraq

“Environmental Poisoning of Iraq: Why Academics Must Speak Out”

Friday, October 24, 2014

12:30 p.m.

UW Seattle: Turner Auditorium (D-209)
Magnuson Health Sciences Building

“The Epidemic of Birth Defects in Iraq: Conversations with an Iraqi Doctor”

Monday, October 27, 2014

Reception: 5:30 p.m.
Lecture: 6:00 p.m.

University Temple United Methodist Church
(1415 NE 43rd St, Seattle)

For more information: ghrc@uw.edu

Cosponsored by: UW Global Health Resource Center | UW Center for Global Studies | World Affairs Council
Interfaith Network of Concern for the People of the Middle East (INOC) | University Temple United Methodist Church
University Christian Church | Physicians for Social Responsibility | Muslim Health Professionals of Greater Puget Sound
Seattle Fellowship of Reconciliation | University Lutheran Church | United Nations Association of Greater Seattle

Also endorsing this program: Veterans for Peace Chapter 92

Flier Produced: September 25, 2014. To request disability accommodation, contact the Disability Services Office at least 10 days in advance at dso@u.washington.edu or 206.543.6450, 206.543.6452/TTY.